

STREAM - 5

Furniture structural series

STREAM-5 Series furniture range is an advanced form of cantilever frame systems in which the frame is firmly fixed to the floor or wall and the bottom part of bench is completely free for leg room which comforts to accomodate more users

STREAM - 5

Furniture structural series

The key for selecting right workbench is to properly define your needs.

Going for higher end will have its own advantages

STREAM- 5 system is suitable for laboratories that face few and minor changes during their lifetime. The complete unit is fixed to the wall or floor and Under bench cabinets could be placed on wheels and movable

BONLAB STREAM- 5 series are most suitable where more persons are working on the same bench, like in the universities or educational institutions.

Our team's full experience has been applied to our benching systems – engineered to meet the demanding specifications of modern laboratories in all sectors.

